Dear Doug,

I'm very touched by your worries. But you know about Mt. Fuji!! seriously, I'm quite conscious of the risks, you can imagine the my Mom is in (often, but fortunately not always). I'm obviously not intending on frequenting cafés, nightclubs, etc... The room I'll be rentin block from the Hartman Institute; and when I'll have to take trips acr town, I'll ride a cab, or I'll try to find someone who has a car and w going to the same place (or I'll hire your brother with his shotgun, a just stroll pleasantly with him through every single neighborhood, wi very definite knowledge that absolutely nothing could happen...). As my Mom, there are many more risks, but I'll be much more careful. T zone" is not everywhere, on a daily basis. Sharon also wants to increase on a rhetorical level the real violence, in order to justify using forces. I don't think there will be an actual arab-israeli war, just in case, I'll contact, as you suggested, the American and French embassies. One way or the other, I'm only leaving in July; God knows what m happen in between. If things worsen, ie. if a war breaks out, I won't go. the latest apparent trends is that Palestinians are now focusing on occupied territories; by attacking Israeli territory itself and civilians were little by little loosing the support of international actors.

I'll speak to you soon, and once again, thanks for your concern.
Keep well, David.
